

The First Annual
MSLA SIG
School Library Conference
for Students!
March 24th at Simmons College

Come to...

- Learn more about the transition from student to professional and get connected with new and experienced library teachers who can tell you how it really is out there!
- Attend sessions that teach you valuable skills to use as a new library teacher!
- Ask questions and get answers from new library teachers during our lunch discussion panel!

Conference topics include Booktalking, Collaboration with Teachers, Library Teacher and Principal Partnership, Bookmaking, Keeping Up-To-Date with New Technology, Surviving and Thriving in the First Five Years, Storytelling, and more...with a special lunch discussion panel with new library teachers and a keynote address by MSLA president, Kathy Lowe!

See our registration form for more in-depth information, including the affordable cost ($10 for student MSLA members! $25 for student non-members, with MSLA registration included in cost!) Professionals are also invited to attend! Lunch is included with advanced registration.
